

Late Payment Policy

Version 3.1 · Effective 1 October 2026 · This policy supersedes all previous versions of the late payment and penalty policy.

Grace period

You have a grace period of 7 calendar days after your due date. There is no penalty if your instalment is received within the grace period.

Late payment penalty

If an instalment is still unpaid at the end of the 7-day grace period, a one-off penalty of 5% of the overdue instalment is charged, up to a maximum of P250 per instalment.

- The penalty is charged once per missed instalment. It does not increase daily or weekly.
- No additional interest is charged on arrears.

Example: your instalment is P1,000, due on the 10th. If you pay on the 16th, there is no penalty. If you pay on the 19th, a penalty of P50 is added.

How we contact you about late payments

- We send an SMS reminder 3 days before your due date
- If your instalment is unpaid after the grace period, your loan officer will contact you by phone, WhatsApp or SMS
- We contact customers only between 08:00 and 18:00, Monday to Saturday, and never on Sundays or public holidays
- We contact you no more than once per day about the same instalment
- If you tell us you have already paid, we pause collections contact for up to 2 business days while we confirm the payment

Credit bureau reporting

Loans more than 60 days in arrears are reported to the credit bureau.
